Fort St. George, July 26, 1932.

No. 2134.—In G.O. No 2590, L. & M., dated the 27th June 1932, the Government fixed the 31st July 1932 for the retirement of the existing members and for the coming into office of the newly elected members of the district and taluk boards in the Madura district. They since find that the dates of the meetings for the election of presidents to the district and taluk boards cannot be fixed immediately after that date. It is not desirable that there should be an interval between the date of the coming into office of the newly elected members and the dates fixed for the election of presidents. In exercise therefore of the power conferred by rule 8 (1) (b) of the Schedule to the Madras Local Boards (Amendment) Act, 1930, the Government are accordingly pleased to postpone the date fixed in G.O. No. 2590, L. & M., dated the 27th June 1932, for the retirement of the existing members of the district and taluk boards in the Madura district and for the coming into office of the newly elected members and to fix the following dates in lieu thereof :—

All taluk boards in the Madura district—10th August 1932.

Madura District Board—28th August 1932.

BILL No. 8 OF 1932.

A Bill further to amend the Madras Impartible Estates Act for certain purposes

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Madras Impartible Estates Act, II of 1904, for the purposes hereinafter appearing;

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor-General has been obtained to the passing of this Act:

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Madras Impartible Estates (Amendment) Act, 193 , and it shall come into force on such date as the Local Government may, by notification, in the Fort St. George Gazette appoint.

2. After clause (3) of section 2 of the Madras Impartible Estates Act, 1904 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following clause shall be added, viz.,

An ' estate ' means an estate as defined by the Madras Proprietary Estates Village Service Act II of 1894.

3. After clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 4 of the said Act the following clauses shall be inserted, viz.,

(c) (i) to exchange any impartible estate or part thereof for any other estate or part thereof fetching a net income not less than that of the impartible estate or part thereof for which it is exchanged;

(ii) to sell an impartible estate or part thereof and to invest the sale-proceeds in the purchase of an estate or portion of an estate more advantageously situated and fetching a net income not less than that of the alienated impartible estate or portion thereof:

Provided that the Collector of the district certifies that the transaction is not disadvantageous to the holder of the impartible estate concerned and provided also that it shall be open to the Local Government, on appeal thereto, to modify or set aside the decision of the Collector granting or refusing to grant a certificate.

4. After sub-section (2) of section 4 of the said Act the following clause shall be inserted, viz.,

(3) The estate or portion thereof exchanged for or purchased with the sale-proceeds of an impartible estate or part thereof under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of this section shall be treated as impartible for any of the purposes of this Act.

5. Sub-section (3) of section 4 of the said Act is to be re-numbered as sub-section (4) of section 4.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Impartible Estates Act of 1904 made the alienation of certain specified estates or parts thereof illegal except under the conditions laid down in the Hindu Law governing the properties of joint Hindu families. This has proved disadvantageous from two points of view. On the one hand, the Hindu Law is not quite definite on this point, as is apparent from the large number of decisions which are being given by the several High Courts and which are not always reconcilable. On the other hand, big estates have their own peculiar problems and it is unfair to subject them to a law which governs properties of varying sizes—but mostly small.

It is not intended here to legislate as regards the first. The Hindu Law as interpreted by the several decisions will continue to govern the question of the alienation of impartible estates. But it is intended here to put on a definite legal basis two kinds of alienation of these estates or parts thereof, viz., (1) exchange of such impartible estates or portions thereof for estates or portions of estates fetching equal incomes, and (2) sale of such impartible estates or portions thereof, with a view to purchase estates or portions of estates fetching equal incomes.

Leading lawyers are of opinion that exchange is permissible under the law as it now stands but that the sale of portions of estates for acquiring other properties may not be so permissible. The intention of this amending Act is to put on a definite basis what is not definite and what may be contestable.

The advantages of this amendment are considerable to the big landholders, while it is in no way prejudicial to the interests of the ryots. Many of the estates of the bigger landholders are scattered and in these days when the administrative expenses are soaring up higher and higher, it is only right that they should as far as possible, make their estates contiguous blocks and thus reduce the cost of administration. The spirit of the Impartible Estates Act, viz., to preserve the integrity of the ancient estates, is not violated in any way, but is, on the other hand, furthered by this amendment.

As can be seen from the provisions of the amendment, sufficient safeguards are provided to prevent abuse of the powers conferred under it.

R. RANGA RAO,
The Raja of Bobbili.

29th June 1932.

BILL No. 9 OF 1932.

A Bill further to amend the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows :— Madras Act V of 1920

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1932.

Substitution of new section for section 40-A of the Madras Act V of 1920.

2. For section 40-A of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Mad Act V 1920.

Motion of no-confidence in chairman or vice-chairman

"40-A. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a motion expressing want of confidence in the chairman or in the vice-chairman may be made by any councillor after obtaining the leave of the council.

(2) (a) The councillor proposing to make the motion shall give written notice to the chairman of his intention to make the motion and such notice shall contain the motion which he proposes to make.

(b) The chairman shall enter the motion as the first item in the list of business for the ordinary meeting of the council held next after the expiry of ten clear days from the date of receipt of such notice:

Provided that where notices have been received of motions against the chairman as well as against the vice-chairman in time for the same ordinary meeting of the council, only the motion against the chairman shall be entered in the list of business for such meeting, the motion against the vice-chairman being entered in the list of business for the ordinary meeting held next after the said meeting.

Explanation.—In this clause, the expression 'ordinary meeting' shall not include a meeting held for the discussion of a motion expressing want of confidence in the chairman or vice-chairman or a meeting held under sub-rule (2) of rule 2 or rule 3 of Schedule III.

(c) On the commencement of the meeting referred to in clause (b), the person presiding shall read to the council the motion entered in the list of business and request those councillors, who are in favour of leave being granted to make the motion, to rise in their places. If the councillors rising accordingly do not constitute a majority of those present, the person presiding shall inform the councillor that he has not the leave of the council to make the motion. If the councillors rising constitute such a majority, the person presiding shall intimate that leave is granted and that the motion will be taken at a meeting to be held on such day and time as he may appoint. The day so appointed shall not be less than six clear days nor more than fifteen clear days from the day on which leave is granted.

(3) No debate on any motion under this section shall be adjourned. Such debate, if not earlier concluded, shall automatically terminate on the expiry of three hours from the time appointed for its commencement. Upon the conclusion of the debate or upon the expiry of the said period of three hours, as the case may be, the motion shall be put to the vote of the council.

(4) (a) If the motion is carried with the support of not less than two-thirds of the sanctioned strength of the council, the Local Government shall, by notification, remove the chairman or vice-chairman, as the case may be.

(b) If the motion is carried but not by such a majority as aforesaid, another motion expressing want of confidence in the same chairman or vice-chairman shall not be made until after an interval of six months from the date on which the motion was so carried. If after such interval (but within a period of twelve months from the said date), a motion expressing want of confidence in such chairman or vice-chairman is carried by the council, the Local Government shall, by notification, remove such chairman or vice-chairman.

(5) If leave to make a motion expressing want of confidence in the chairman or in the vice-chairman is not granted by the council or if the motion when put to the council is rejected, no motion expressing want of confidence in the same chairman or vice-chairman shall be admitted until after an interval of six months from the date of refusal of the leave or of rejection of the motion, as the case may be."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 40-A of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, introduced by the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1930, provides for the consideration of motions expressing want of confidence in the chairmen and vice-chairmen of municipal councils and their automatic removal from office under the circumstances specified therein. Experience has, however, shown that these provisions have lent themselves to abuse and to interference with the normal administrations of the municipalities. The object of the Bill is to prevent this abuse of power, while leaving to the councillors the right to move motions expressing want of confidence in chairmen or vice-chairmen of municipal councils. The provision for the automatic vacating of office by chairman or vice-chairmen against whom a motion expressing want of confidence is passed by a prescribed majority, is deleted and power is given to Government to remove such chairmen or vice-chairmen from office.

The Bill also provides that if a motion is rejected or is not carried by a prescribed majority, no similar motion should be brought up until after the lapse of six months.

22*nd July* 1932. B MUNISWAMI.

BILL No. 10 OF 1932.

A Bill further to amend the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, for a certain purpose.

Mad. XIV of 20. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Madras Local Boards (Second Amendment) Act, 1932.

Mad. XIV of 20. 2. For section 44 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, the following section shall be substituted, namely:— Substitution of new section for section 44 of Madras Act XIV of 1920.

"44 (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a motion expressing want of confidence in the president or in the vice-president of a local board may be made by any member of the board after obtaining the leave of the board. Motion of no-confidence in president or vice-president.

(2) (a) The member proposing to make the motion shall give written notice to the president of his intention to make the motion and such notice shall contain the motion which he proposes to make.

(b) The president shall enter the motion as the first item in the list of business for the ordinary meeting of the board held next after the expiry of ten clear days from the date of receipt of such notice;

Provided that where notices have been received of motions against the president as well as against the vice-president in time for the same ordinary meeting of the board, only the motion against the president shall be entered in the list of business for such meeting, the motion against the vice-president being entered in the list of business for the ordinary meeting held next after the said meeting.

Explanation.—In this clause, the expression 'ordinary meeting' shall not include a meeting held for the discussion of a motion expressing want of confidence in the president or vice-president or a meeting held under sub-rule (2) of rule 3 or rule 4 of Schedule II.

(c) On the commencement of the meeting referred to in clause (b), the person presiding shall read to the board the motion entered in the list of business and request those members who are in favour of leave being granted to make the motion, to rise in their places. If the members rising accordingly do not constitute a majority of those present, the person presiding shall inform the member that he has not the leave of the board to make the motion. If the members rising constitute such a majority, the person presiding shall intimate that leave is granted and that the motion will be taken at a meeting to be held on such day and time as he may appoint. The day so appointed shall not—

(i) in the case of a district or a taluk board, be less than ten clear days nor more than fifteen clear days; and

(ii) in the case of a panchayat, be less than six clear days nor more than fifteen clear days from the day on which leave is granted and the meeting shall not be held at any place other than the place where the office of the board is situated.

(3) No debate on any motion under this section shall be adjourned. Such debate, if not earlier concluded, shall automatically terminate on the expiry of three hours from the time appointed for its commencement. Upon the conclusion of the debate or upon the expiry of the said period of three hours, as the case may be, the motion shall be put to the vote of the board.

(4) (a) If the motion is carried with the support of not less than two-thirds of the sanctioned strength of the board, the Local Government shall, by notification, remove the president or vice-president, as the case may be.

(b) If the motion is carried but not by such a majority as aforesaid, another motion expressing want of confidence in the same president or vice-president shall not be made until after an interval of six months from the date on which the motion was so carried. If after such interval (but within the period of twelve months from the said date), a motion expressing want of confidence in such president or vice-president is carried by the board, the Local Government shall, by notification, remove such president or vice-president.

(5) If leave to make a motion expressing want of confidence in the president or in the vice-president is not granted by the board or if the motion when put to the board is rejected, no motion expressing want of confidence in the same president or vice-president shall be admitted until after an interval of six months from the date of refusal of the leave or of rejection of the motion, as the case may be."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 44 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, introduced by the Madras Local Boards (Amendment) Act, 1930, provides for the consideration of motions expressing want of confidence in the presidents and vice-presidents of local boards and their automatic removal from office under the circumstances specified therein. Experience has, however, shown that these provisions have lent themselves to abuse and to interference with the normal administration of the local boards. The object of the Bill is to prevent such abuse of powers, while leaving to members of local boards, the right to move motions expressing want of confidence in presidents or vice-presidents of local boards. The provision for the automatic vacating of office by president or vice-president against whom a motion expressing want of confidence is passed by a prescribed majority is deleted and power is given to Government to remove such president or vice-president from office.

The Bill also provides that if a motion is rejected or is not carried by the prescribed majority, no similar motion should be brought up until after the lapse of six months
